

INSURANCE LAW MOOT

5 and 6 March 2017

BILA and the BILA Charitable Trust were delighted once again to be able to support the Third University of Southampton Insurance Law Moot held in London over two days on Sunday 5 March and Monday 6 March 2017.

The General Rounds took place at the offices of Clyde & Co on Sunday 5 March 2017 which saw six teams competing: from Southampton University; Queen Mary College, London; King's College, London; Middle Temple; City Law School; and the University of Law. BILA Charitable Trust Chair, Alison Green and Julian Miller of DAC Beachcrofts were among the Moot judges.

Nicholas Wright and Mark Baldock (City) and Sam Cuthbert and Emma Woods (University of Law) succeeded in making it through to the Final which was held at the Supreme Court the following day before a Panel comprising Lady Justice Gloster (BILA Deputy President), Peter Macdonald Eggers QC (BILA Committee Member) and Tony Baumgartner (Partner, Clyde & Co) with Nick and Mark being adjudged the winning team and Nick the most accomplished mooter.

Among the prizes awarded to each of the four finalists was a year's complimentary individual student membership of BILA, sponsored by the BILA Charitable Trust.
